How to Enter Your Exhibit at the Fair

1. Bring your exhibit to the fair on Monday, the first day of the fair. Open registration is 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. 4-H must be pre-registered – Interviewing & Judging Friday, August 17, 2007, 5:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m., Monday, August 20, 2007 12:00 noon – 5:00 p.m.
2. Stop at the exhibit office – located at the north central area of the grounds in a tan cement block building to register and pick-up an exhibitor's entry form or use premium sheet PDF. You may make copies if more are needed.
3. Here you will register your exhibitor number which you will use in place of your name on all exhibits. You will use the first letter of your last name plus the last four numbers of you Social Security number. 4-H Exhibitors shall use their 4-H assigned number for all of their entries.
4. You can now take your exhibit to the area or building in which it will be displayed.
5. Here a clerk will enter your exhibit, giving you an exhibitor's tag which you attach to each of your exhibits. You remove the bottom portion of the tag for your claim check.
6. Your exhibit will now be placed on display.
7. Open judging is scheduled for Tuesday morning, unless otherwise stated.
8. The premium checks will be distributed after the fair or mailed.
9. You can pick up your exhibit on the first Monday following the fair – or as stated in the fair book.
10. The Fair Board looks forward to your participation in the fair – it's more fun for you if you have a part in it.

NOTE: Animal exhibits must be pre-registered with the chairman to reserve exhibit space.
